

ABOUT ME

AI Product Engineer with a decade of professional TypeScript experience, building on React since 2016 and Next.js since 2018. On most projects I was the first frontend hire, owning architecture, tooling, component libraries, and pipelines from day one, then growing the team around them: hiring, interviewing, onboarding, and writing the playbooks that let new engineers integrate seamlessly.

Most of my experience is building dashboards, product platforms and proprietary data explorers for cybersecurity, crypto, and gaming companies. That's where I found a passion for data-driven products and visualisations. I've built with AI since the first releases of Copilot and ChatGPT, moving from prompt and context engineering to creating suite of open-source skills to designing full agent harnesses and automations.

FUN FACTS

Started coding young for fun by modding and reverse-engineering games and consoles. Built my own fighting game with the MUGEN engine and ran dedicated servers for Counter-Strike, Minecraft, and other titles.

Placed second nationally and reached the final four of the 2008 robotics world cup in China with LEGO Mindstorms.
